Containing the freshest Advices Foreign and Domestick.

FROM SATURDAY December 12, to SATURDAY December 19, 1741.

Extract of a Letter from the Hague, dated October 20.

MR. Trevor did not own that he knew any Thing of the Neutrality for the Electorate of Hanover, till within a few Days that he received a Letter from Lord Harrington, giving him Advice thereof. The two following Articles are stipulated in that Convention, namely, that his Britannick Majesty should engage not to attack the Allies of the King of France in the Empire; and that his most Christian Majesty on the other Side, promised so to order Matters, that the Electorate of Hanover should not be attack'd by his Troops. As to the Winter Quarters which the French Troops intend to take in Westphalia, it was verbally agreed that they should not enter into that Country till after the King should have pass'd through it in his Return into England. Lord Harrington, it is said, declined signing this Convention, alledging, that his being a British, and not a Hanoverian Minister, rendered his subscribing it utterly unnecessary; so that Mr. Bussy only signed it on one Side, and Mr. Steinberg on the other. It is said that the Overtures which Mr. Bussy has made for a Peace between Great-Britain and Spain, are to the following Purpose: That as Gibraltar and Port-Mahon has been a stumbling Block in the Way of every Accommodation hitherto proposed between Great-Britain and Spain, his Britannick Majesty would do well to endeavour to engage his Parliament to consent to the yielding up these two Places to the Spaniards: That on the other Hand, in Consideration thereof, the King of Spain will not only grant a free Navigation to the English in America, but also will give up to them some Port, Fortress, or Place, which shall effectually secure to them their Navigation and Commerce to that Country.

LONDON, September 3.

All the Men of War who have been cruising, and are return'd, are ordered to repair to Spithead, at which Place, we hear, a Fleet of considerable Force will be immediately assembled.

Sept. 5. By private Letters from Jamaica, we hear, that Don Blas had sent a Reinforcement of 500 Men to Panama, on board some Transports, and that in their Passage they met with a violent Storm, whereby two of them were lost, and 200 of the Men perished.

His Majesty's Ship the Bedford is order'd to be victual'd for Sea Service with all possible Dispatch.

Yesterday Advice was brought that his Majesty's Ships the Bedford, Hamp'on-Court and Falmouth, were arriv'd at Dover from the Island of Jamaica.

Also that the Princess Carolina and the Chichester Men of War were arriv'd at Plymouth from the said Island.

And we hear that the rest of the Men of War from that Place, and all the Transports, were sent off the Isle of Wight on Thursday last.

We hear that the Men of War just return'd from the West Indies, are order'd to be survey'd directly, and re-fit at the several Yards.

On Thursday a Cart laden with Money came to the Bank, under a Guard of Sailors, from on board his Majesty's Ship the Torbay, arriv'd at Portsmouth from Jamaica.

Her Royal Highness the Princess of Wales is advanced some Months in her Pregnancy.

The Regiments design'd for Jamaica are order'd to be embark'd on board the Transports with all Expedition, every thing being ready for their Reception.

Sept. 24. Yesterday the Right Hon. Sir Charles Wager, and several Lords of the Admiralty, went to Deptford to see an Experiment of Dr. Desaguliers tried, for extracting by a Machine the foul Air out of Ships, in order to prevent contagious Distempers in his Majesty's Navy, proceeding from unwholesome Effluvia of great Numbers of Men lying together in close Places.

Yesterday two Ships, with Naval Stores aboard, bound for the West Indies, fell down the River from the Tower, in Order to join the rest of Squadron at Spithead, intended to re-inforce Admiral Vernon.

We have an Account from Kinsale in Ireland, that part of the Crew belonging to a Spanish Privateer lately made a Descent near Beerhaven, and carry'd off all the Cattle they could meet with.

By Letters by Way of France there is Advice, that four new large Privateers were sail'd from St. Sebastian's.

Several of the small Ships of War are order'd to cruise on Account of the Appearance of some Spanish Privateers in the Channel.

Yesterday the Greyhound Man of War, of Twenty Guns, was launch'd at Limehouse; and the same Day another Man of War of fifty Guns, was launch'd in a private Yard on the opposite shore.

Extract of a Letter from St. Sebastian's, Sept. 17.

The last Prize that was brought in here, was a Ship laden with Port Wines and Oil; but just now the Jane one of our Privateers, is arriv'd, who made four Prizes, coming in; one a small Sugar Sloop, suppos'd to be the Roebuck, Capt. Stoddard; the second laden with Salt, Seamen's Apparel, &c. for Newfoundland; the third with Cables, Anchors, Artillery, and some other naval Stores, and the fourth in her Ballast. As we have no Boat with any of the Privateer's Crew as yet come ashore, this Account may be imperfect, but 'tis the best I can give at present.

London, October 20. This Afternoon at Three o'Clock, his Majesty arriv'd at St. James's in good Health.

Oct. 23. Yesterday there was held a Grand Council, when the Lords Justices of the Regency attended, and resign'd their Commission to his Majesty, and the same was then cancelled.

The Commissioners of his Majesty's Navy have contracted for six Bomb Vessels to be built with the utmost Expedition.

The Bathus, Capt. Smith, and the Hannah, Capt. Turner, are contracted with by the Commissioners of the Navy to carry the naval Stores for the Island of Jamaica.
